

Stocks Surge On US Bank Plan

Tuesday, 24 March 2009

US Stocks rose on US Plan to remove banks bad assets. This help strengthening Global Market including IHSG with 1.406.65 on monday.

The Plan can help US Banks and Global Banking to recover so they can function properly and will relieve global recession. Regional and local market hope for stocks rockets after foreign funds start new investment.